

PROFESSIONAL ENRICHMENT PROGRAM FOR SPIRITUAL DIRECTORS

November 11, 2020, 10 AM - 3 PM
Presenter: Jim Bowler, SJ

THE ANNOTATIONS AS A WAY TO DEEPEN A SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR'S EMPATHIC LISTENING SKILLS, Session1

In his Spiritual Exercises (#1-22), St. Ignatius of Loyola includes twenty two Introductory Observations or Annotations as a help to both the director and directee. This workshop will explore several of these as foundational listening guidelines for the ministry of spiritual direction. In addition, current listening skill theories will be introduced to enhance one's ability to utilize Ignatius' guidelines in one's practice.

BEYOND IGNATIAN CONTEMPLATION, Session 2

Many who have enjoyed Ignatian contemplation begin to experience this dynamic as less fruitful and more arduous in their prayer. This workshop will explore this reality through the lenses of James Fowler's faith development theory as well as that of John of the Cross' dark night of the soul. Centering Prayer will be explored as a method to navigate this process.

COORDINATING STAFF: Maureen Casey, SND, Joan M. McCarthy, CSJ

Jim M. Bowler, S.J. is currently stationed at Campion Center in Weston, MA. For over thirty years he has been involved in the ministries of spiritual direction, training thereof, directed retreats and workshops promoting Ignatian spirituality.
